

Tentative Schedule CHA 2015 – Horaire provisoire SHC 2015

Sunday May 31st 2015 / Dimanche 31 mai 2015

8:00-9:30 / 20h-21h30

Roundtable / Table-ronde - La commémoration dans la région de la capitale nationale : évolution et constats / Commemorations in the National Capital Region : evolution and findings

1.

Facilitator / Animateur : Yves Frénette

7:00-11:00 / 19h-23h (161 Laurier E.)

2. Graduate Student Committee Social Event / Activité sociale du Comité des étudiant(e)s diplômé(e)s

L'activité aura lieu à l'étage du bas du Royal Oak Pub, 161 avenue Laurier Est

The event will be held in the lower level of the Royal Oak Pub, 161 Laurier Avenue East

Monday June 1st 2015 / Lundi 1^{er} juin 2015

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

3. Historicizing Indigenous Feminism: Aboriginal Women's Politics in Recent History

Facilitator / Animateur : Robert Innes (University of Saskatchewan)

Amanda Fehr (University of Saskatchewan): "I am a Strong Woman:" Reconciling Narratives of Christianity, Gender, and Political Activism in Recent Aboriginal Histories

Erica Lee (University of Saskatchewan): "Indigenous Sovereignty Starts In This Body": Idle No More, Native Feminisms, and Envisioning the Body as Territory

Sarah Nickel (Simon Fraser University): Homemakers, Activists, and Radical Mothers: Indigenous Feminism and Politicized Motherhood in the British Columbia Aboriginal Political Movement, 1950-1981

Commentator / Commentateur : Robert Innes (University of Saskatchewan)

Part of the mini-conference in Aboriginal History sponsored by the Aboriginal History Studies Group / Rattachée à la mini-conférence en histoire autochtone parrainée par le Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

4. Canadian Popular History and the Study of Music

Facilitator / Animateur :

Paul Aikenhead (York University): What's that Sound?: Deciphering Canadian Rock Music Records as Historical Texts

Francesca D'Amico (York University): "The Mic is my Piece": Canadian Rap, the Gendered Cool Pose, and Music Industry Racialization and Regulation

Peter Grant (City University London): The First World War and Popular Myth in Canadian Music

Commentator / Commentateur :

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

5. Democracy and Sovereignty in Postwar Canada and Quebec

Facilitator / Animateur : Ian Milligan (University of Waterloo)

Christo Aivalis (Queen's University): Socialism, Liberalism, and Economic democracy: Pierre Trudeau, the Labour-Left, and Canadian Economic Nationalism, 1968-1984

Nikolas Barry-Shaw (Queen's University): A Sneak Preview of Québec? The tragedy of Allende's Chile and its impact on economic nationalism in Québec

David Blocker (Western University): Solidarity Forever? Canadian Left Nationalists, the Texpack Strike and the Challenge of International Unionism

Commentator / Commentateur : Ian Milligan (University of Waterloo)

Sponsored by the Political History Group / Parrainée par le Groupe d'histoire politique

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

6. Interdisciplinary Perspectives on the Welfare State

Facilitator / Animatrice : Penny Bryden (University of Victoria)

Gregory P. Marchildon (University of Regina): Universal Medicare and Policy Agenda Setting in Saskatchewan

Lisa Pasolli (Trent University): Considering Child Care's Historical "Frames": Ontario Child Care Politics, 1942-2000

David Tough (Trent University): "Handmaidens of the Handmaidens:" Pressure Groups, Bureaucracy, and the Redistributive State in Canada, 1962-1972

Commentator / Commentatrice : Penny Bryden (University of Victoria)

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

7. New Perspectives in Economic History

Facilitator / Animatrice : Ruth Sandwell (University of Toronto)

Luiza Antonie, Kris Inwood and J. Andrew Ross, (University of Guelph): Linked data and the life-course from the Canadian censuses 1871-1901

Peter Baskerville (University of Alberta): The Last Best West: Homesteaders on the Move, Alberta, 1871-1916

Sherry Olson (McGill University): Clues from a bank scandal to unravel the social network of Montreal in the 1840s

Commentator / Commentatrice : Ruth Sandwell (University of Toronto)

Sponsored by the Canadian Network for Economic History/Parrainée par le Réseau canadien d'histoire économique

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

8. Extending the Boundaries of Heaven: Religious Groups and Their Use of Mass Media in History

Facilitator / Animateur : Mark G. McGowan (University of Toronto)

Stuart Barnard (University of Calgary): "The Sacred Exception": The Bible Society and the bible trade in Canada at the turn of the twentieth century

Ruth Bradley-St-Cyr (University of Ottawa): Reception of the United Church of Canada's New Curriculum, 1965

Shandip Saha (Athabasca University): Religion and the Internet in Modern Hinduism: The Creation of a New Age Hinduism by a Female Hindu Religious Teacher

Charlotte Elizabeth Tonna (University of Toronto): The Christian Ladies Magazine and Helen Fleetwood
Commentator / Commentateur: Mark G. McGowan (University of Toronto)

Co-sponsored by the Media and Communications History Group, the Canadian Society of Church History, and the Canadian Association for the Study of Book Culture / Coparrainée par le Comité de l'histoire des médias et de la communication, la Société canadienne d'histoire de l'église et l'Association canadienne pour l'étude de l'histoire du livre

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

9. The Scholarly Benefits of Interdisciplinary Comparative Canadian and Australian Research

Facilitator / Animateur :

Jatinder Mann (University of Alberta): “Retaining migrant cultures” and “Leavening British traditions”: A comparison of integration policies in Canada and Australia, 1950s-1970s

Steve Marti (Western University): Marginal Mobilization: Unsettling Narratives of the First World War through a Comparative Study of Settler Colonialism in Australia and Canada

Tyler Turek (Western University): What we talk about when we talk about Sovereignty: Interdisciplinary Approaches to Canadian and Australian Statehood from the First World War to Decolonization

Commentator / Commentateur :

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

10. The historian's craft: international perspectives

Facilitators / Animateurs : Jules Racine-St-Jacques (Université Laval) & Van Troi Tran (Université Laval)

Vincent Auzas (CNRS-Paris) & Maryline Crivello (Université de Provence): « Histinéaires. L'Histoire telle qu'elle se raconte », un programme de recherche ANR

Christian Delacroix (Université Paris-Est): La question de la subjectivité en histoire : la thématization introuvable

Valérie Lapointe-Gagnon (York University) and Maria Neagu: Les historiens par eux-mêmes : considérations autour d'un projet de recherche

Doug Munro (University of Queensland): Being an Historian in Different Settlements

Patrick-Michel Noël (Université Laval): Le métier d'historien peut-il et devrait-il se dire? Les historiens sur l'épistémologie

Commentator / Commentateur: Chad Gaffield (University of Ottawa)

Co-sponsored by the Folklore Studies Association of Canada and the Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science / Coparrainée par l' Association canadienne d'ethnologie et de folklore et la Société canadienne d'histoire et de philosophie des sciences

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

11. Capitals and Peripheries: Historical Perspectives on International Development

Facilitator / Animateur : Ian Smillie (McLeod Group)

Stephanie Bangarth (Western University): “Is our assistance worthwhile?”: The Role of Tripartisanship in the Canadian Response to Refugee and International Development Crises, 1968 – 1978

Tentative Schedule CHA 2015 – Horaire provisoire SHC 2015

Jill Campbell-Miller (Saint Mary's University): Integrating History and International Development Studies: Lessons from the Canadian-Indian Aid Experience

John F. Devlin (University of Guelph): State Theory, Historical Sociology, and Comparative Agricultural Development

Kevin O'Sullivan (National University of Ireland Galway): Searching for a Saviour: Humanitarian NGOs and Human Rights in Central America in the 1970s and 1980s

Commentator / Commentateur : Ian Smillie (McLeod Group)

Co-sponsored by the Canadian Association for the Study of International Development (CASID) and the Canadian Council on Migration, Ethnicity and Transnationalism / Coparrainée par l'Association canadienne d'études du développement international (ACÉDI) et par le Comité canadien sur la migration, l'éthnicité et le transnationalisme

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

12. Keynote Address / Discours liminaire

Chair / Animatrice : Dominique Marshall (Carleton University)

Introduced by / Présenté par: Pierre Anctil (Université d'Ottawa)

Dean F. Oliver (Director of research, Canadian Museum of History): Title / Dean F. Oliver (Directeur à la recherche, Musée canadien de l'histoire): Titre

12:00-1:00 / 12h-13h

13. Aboriginal History Study Group Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone
14. Public History Group Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Groupe d'histoire publique
15. History of Children and Youth Group Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Groupe d'histoire de l'enfance et de la jeunesse
16. Political History Group Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Groupe d'histoire politique
17. Canadian Committee on Labour History Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Comité canadien sur l'histoire du travail
18. Media and Communications History Committee Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Comité de l'histoire des médias et de la communication
19. Histoire sociale / Social History Annual Meeting / Réunion annuelle d'Histoire sociale / Social History

1:00-4:00 / 13h à 16h (Desmarais – 12102)

When Data Meets the Soul of Culture: How Technology, Science, Social Science and Humanities Research are Changing The Way We See Ourselves / Quand l'informatique se porte à la rencontre de la culture : Comment la technologie, la science et la recherche en sciences humaines transforment la manière dont nous nous percevons

A discussion and debate on the changing nature of scholarly research in the context of digital humanities: producing, sharing, analyzing, and preserving knowledge in the digital age / Une discussion de l'évolution de la recherche scientifique dans le contexte des sciences humaines numériques : la production, le partage, l'analyse et la conservation des connaissances acquises à l'ère numérique

Organizers / Organisateurs: Leslie Weir (University of Ottawa) & Fabien Lengellé (Library and Archives Canada/Bibliothèque et archives Canada)

Participants:

Guy Berthiaume, Librarian and Archivist of Canada/Bibliothécaire et archiviste du Canada (Library and Archives Canada/Bibliothèque et archives Canada)

Susan Brown (University of Guelph)

Vincent Larivière, Chaire de recherche du Canada sur les transformations de la communication savante (Université de Montréal)

Sponsored by Library and Archives Canada, the Office of the Vice-President Research and the Library of the University of Ottawa, the Canadian Historical Association, the Canadian Association for Information Science, the Canadian Society for Digital Humanities, and the Federation for the Humanities and Social Sciences / Parrainée par Bibliothèque et Archives Canada, le Cabinet de la Vice-rectrice à la recherche et la bibliothèque de l'Université d'Ottawa, la Société historique du Canada, l'Association canadienne des sciences de l'informations, la Société canadienne des humanités numériques et la Fédération des sciences humaines.

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

20. Canadian History with an Indigenous Historical Consciousness

Facilitator / Animatrice : Susan Neylan (Wilfrid Laurier University)

Seth Adema (Wilfrid Laurier University): More than Stone and Iron: Reading Penal History as Aboriginal History

Allan Downey (McGill University): Dehorning the Creator's Game: The Lord's Day Act in Six Nations of the Grand River

Liam Haggarty (Mount Royal University): To See Our History as the Other's Other History: The Repositioning of Canadian History within Indigenous Historiography

Commentator / Commentatrice : Susan Neylan (Wilfrid Laurier University)

Part of the mini-conference in Aboriginal History sponsored by the Aboriginal History Studies Group / Rattachée à la mini-conférence en histoire autochtone parrainée par le Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

21. Racialized Faith: Race, Racism, Gender and Religion in 20th Century Canada

Facilitator / Animateur : Paul Bramadat (University of Victoria)

Nadia Jones-Gailani (University of South Florida): Beyond the Veil: Uncovering a New Political Feminism in the Narratives of Iraqi Women in Diaspora

Lynne Marks (University of Victoria): Settler Feminism, Racism and the Churches in a Godless Province, 1890-1920

Alison Marshall (Brandon University): Raced expectations and religion in pre-1950s Canada

Commentator / Commentateur: Roy Loewen (University of Winnipeg)

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

22. (Un)disciplining Human Rights History at the Canadian Museum for Human Rights

Facilitator / Animateur :

Jodi Giesbrecht (Canadian Museum for Human Rights/Musée canadien pour les droits de la personne): Multimedia Storytelling and Canada's Human Rights History

Emily Grafton (Canadian Museum for Human Rights/Musée canadien pour les droits de la personne): Using Indigenous Knowledge to Reshape Representation in Museums

Isabelle Masson (Canadian Museum for Human Rights/Musée canadien pour les droits de la personne): Human Rights Today: (re)presenting lived experiences of struggles against historical and contemporary forms of oppression and processes of dispossession

Armando Perla (Canadian Museum for Human Rights/Musée canadien pour les droits de la personne): Artifacts, Challenges, and Choices: Representing Canada's Legal Traditions

Commentator / Commentateur :

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

23. Anti-Militarism in Canada and the United States

Facilitator / Animatrice : Nancy Janovicek (University of Calgary)

Tarah Brookfield (Wilfrid Laurier University): 31 Hours on Grindstone Isle: A Fraught Experiment in Non-Violence

Lara Campbell (Simon Fraser University): "I'd just as soon go back to the U.S. shooting": Gender and the Politics of Amnesty in the Vietnam War

Eryk Martin (Simon Fraser University): "Refuse the Cruise": Anarchism, Non-Violence, and the Unexpected Politics of Anti-Militarism in Canada

Commentator / Commentatrice : Nancy Janovicek (University of Calgary)

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

24. Identity on the Margins: Explorations in Interdisciplinary Frameworks

Facilitator / Animatrice : Stephanie Bangarth (King's College/Western University)

Alyshea Cummin (University of Ottawa): Accounting for Islamic Diversity: An investigation of how Islam is socially constructed using historical discourses

Mabel Ho (University of British Columbia): The Construction of Filipino Canadians: A case study of newspaper representation

Jon G. Malek (Western University): Little Pearl on the Prairies: A historical sketch of the development of the Winnipeg Filipino community, 1959-2010

Shezan Muhammedi (Western University): Exploring the Utility of an Interdisciplinary Framework on the Life Histories of Ugandan Asian Refugees in Canada

Commentator / Commentatrice : Stephanie Bangarth (King's College/Western University)

Sponsored by the Canadian Council on Migration, Ethnicity and Transnationalism / Parrainée par le Comité canadien sur la migration, l'éthnicité et le transnationalisme

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

25. Storming the Ivory Tower: Canadian Interwar Historians Challenge the Boundaries of their Craft, 1919-1939

Facilitator / Animateur : Donald Wright (University of New Brunswick)

Ross Cameron (Independent Scholar/Chercheur indépendant): J. Bartlet Brebner and Liberal Internationalist Historiography

Scott Fleming (Queen's University): A Record "Of Imperishable Glory:" English Canadian Historians Confront the Memory of the Great War, 1920-1929

Ian McKay (Queen's University): The Archivist as Activist: James Martell and the Promise of Liberal Democracy in Nova Scotia, 1935-1946

Commentator / Commentateur: Donald Wright (University of New Brunswick)

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

26. Rethinking the Canada-United States Border / Un second regard sur la frontière canado-américaine

Facilitator / Animateur : Michel Hogue (Carleton University)

Anthony Di Mascio (Bishop's University): Borderland Schooling and the Myth of Anti-Americanism in Canadian Education: A Perspective from the Eastern Townships of Lower Canada, 1829-1867

Frédéric Lasserre (Université Laval): La gestion de la frontière Canada-États-Unis : le cas des villages-frontière du Québec

Molly Ungar (University of the Fraser Valley): The 49th Parallel as a Stargate: The Royal Visit of 1939 to the United States

John Willis (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire): Of hot and cold cycles in the history of the Canadian-American border

Commentator / Commentateur: Michel Hogue (Carleton University)

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

27. Indigenous Land Use Past and Present: New Methodologies Using HGIS Technology

Facilitator / Animateur : Daniel Rueck (University of Ottawa)

Patrick Chassé (University of Saskatchewan): Defining Sustainable Agriculture: Mapping Indigenous Peasant Food Production during Guatemala's Agrarian Reform (1952-1954)

Glenn Ice-ton (University of Saskatchewan): Trapline Registration and HGIS: A Spatial History of Kaska Land Use in the Early to Mid-Twentieth Century

Cheryl Troupe (University of Saskatchewan): Oral History, Family History and HGIS: Spatially Representation of Metis Social Relations in the Qu'Appelle River Valley

Commentator / Commentateur: Daniel Rueck (University of Ottawa)

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

28. Commemorating History / Regards croisés sur la commémoration historique

Facilitator / Animateur :

Mary G. Chaktsiris (Queen's University): "Flanders' Field": Veteran's Voices of the Great War in Mid-Twentieth Century Canada

Martin Laberge (Université du Québec en Outaouais): « La France veut vivre ». La société française, le souvenir de la Grande Guerre et la limitation des armements navals, 1919-1935

Colin McMahon (York University): No Dominion over Memory: The 1875 Daniel O'Connell Centenary in Canada

Desmond Morton (Hiram Mills Emeritus Professor, McGill University): The Battle of the Plains of Abraham: A Fresh Perspective on an Old Battle

Commentator / Commentateur:

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

29. Made History: Material Culture and New Insights into Indigenous Historical Consciousness

Facilitator / Animateur : Keith Thor Carlson (University of Saskatchewan)

Christoph Laugs (Universität Trier): Everyday Clothing and Sunday Suits: Metis Clothing and the Display of Belonging, 1869-c.1900

Madeline Knickerbocker (Simon Fraser University): Out of the River and into the Museum: Material Engagements between Stó:lō and Settler Anthropologists, 1943-1970

Katya C. MacDonald (University of Saskatchewan): A Spindle, an Awl and the Construction Tools of Tla'amin Histories in the 20th Century

Commentator / Commentateur: Keith Thor Carlson (University of Saskatchewan)

Part of the mini-conference in Aboriginal History sponsored by the Aboriginal History Studies Group / Rattachée à la mini-conférence en histoire autochtone parrainée par le Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

30. Roundtable – New Ideas in Twentieth-Century Canada-US Transnational Political History

Facilitator / Animateur : Robert MacDougall (Western University)

Participants:

Jeff Brison (Queen's University)

Tracy Neumann (Wayne State University)

Jacob Remes (SUNY Empire State College)

Mark Sholdice (University of Guelph)

Sponsored by the Political History Group / Parrainée par le Groupe d'histoire politique

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

31. Borderline Obsessions: Regulating and Rejecting Immigrants at Canada's Points of Entry

Facilitator / Animatrice : Laura Madokoro (McGill University)

Lisa Chilton (University of Prince Edward Island): Deportation or Repatriation? Leprosy and Canada's Flexible Border

Elizabeth A. Scott (University of Saskatchewan): "The Ill-name of the Old Country": Assisted English Emigrants and Canadian Border Control, 1906-1910

Rachel Wolters (Southern Illinois University): Land, Liberty, and Restriction: The 49th Parallel and African American Migration, 1907-1912

Commentator / Commentatrice: Laura Madokoro (McGill University)

Sponsored by the Canadian Council on Migration, Ethnicity and Transnationalism / Parrainée par le Comité canadien sur la migration, l'éthnicité et le transnationalisme

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

32. History of Medicine in Canada / Histoire de la médecine au Canada

Facilitator / Animateur :

Michael Boudreau (St. Thomas University): Social Insanity & "pathological intoxication": Criminological Inquiry & Death Penalty Cases in New Brunswick

Blake Brown (Saint Mary's University) & Magen Hudak (Trent University): Medical Malpractice in Interwar Canada: Negotiating the Boundaries of Personal Responsibility, Medical Ethics, & Public Policy

Erna Kurbegović (University of Calgary): A Survey of Psychiatric Cases in the York Factory Journals, 1787-1850

Whitney Wood (Wilfrid Laurier University): "Spreading the Gospel" of Natural Birth: Canadian Contributions to an International Medical Movement, 1940-1960

Commentator / Commentateur :

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

33. Approaching Religion as a Factor in History / Facteur religieux en histoire

Facilitator / Animateur :

Lori Lee Oates (University of Exeter): Wisdom from the East: Nineteenth Century Theosophy within its Global and Imperial Context

Stuart Parker (University of British Columbia/Simon Fraser University): Doing Mormon Religious History in the "Mormon Moment" and the Romney Presidential Campaign: Participant-Observer Observations

Brian Titley (University of Lethbridge): 'Spiritual Science' and Social Science: Divine and Human Elements in Vocations to American Religious Sisterhoods, 1945-1965

Commentator / Commentateur :

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

34. Canada and the Circumpolar World

Facilitator / Animateur : Richard Goette (Canadian Forces College/Collège des Forces canadiennes)

Daniel Heidt (Western University): "Mr. A. Taylor, a member of Operation Tabarin:" The Antarctic, Arctic, and Imperial Experiences of a Manitoban

Peter Kikkert (Western University): “Hardly what one would expect of an ‘old’ Commonwealth Government.” Canada, the Commonwealth and Antarctic Sovereignty

Adam Lajeunesse (University of Calgary): Secretly Useful: Reassessing Canadian Northern Operations, 1970-1989

John Woitkowitz (University of Calgary): So Happy Together?: U.S.-Canadian Defence Relations in the Arctic, 1945-1957

Commentator / Commentateur : Richard Goette (Canadian Forces College/Collège des Forces canadiennes)

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

35. Canadian Business History: Critical and Interdisciplinary

Facilitator / Animateur : J. Andrew Ross (University of Guelph)

Jason Russell (Empire State College – SUNY): Making Managers Beyond Canada: The Canadian International Development Agency, the Western Business School, and the University of the West Indies in the 1970s

M. Stephen Salmon (Steamer Consulting): “... the worst cases”: Swan, Hunter and the Canadian Great Lakes Trades, 1921-1940

Commentator / Commentateur : Herbert Emery (University of Calgary)

Sponsored by the Business History Group / Parrainée par le Comité d’histoire des affaires

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

36. Decolonizing Historiography: The Necessity of Interdisciplinarity

Facilitator / Animatrice : Eva Mackey (Carleton University)

Emma Battell Lowman (University of Leicester): Changing the Terrain of Historical Research – Indigenous Research Methods for All

Kelly Black (Carleton University): Localizing Settler Colonialism: An Interdisciplinary Approach to Understanding the Past as the Present

Heather E. McGregor (The University of British Columbia): Reciprocity in Historiography?: When Relationships Design Our Stories

Commentator / Commentatrice : Eva Mackey (Carleton University)

3:15-4:45 / 15h15-16h45

37. Public History Speed Networking Event

Facilitators: Michelle Hamilton (University of Western Ontario)

Forrest Pass (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l’histoire)

Cette session n’est offerte qu’en anglais

Prior registration required

Sponsored by the Public History Group / Parrainée par le Groupe d'histoire publique

3:30-5:30 / 15h30 à 17h30 (Arts – 033)

Canadian Society for Renaissance Studies Keynote Lecture /
Conférence plénière de la Société canadienne de la Renaissance

Chair / Animatrice Hélène Cazes (University of Victoria)

Speaker / Conférencier: Randall McLeof (University of Toronto): « Vergil, 1501 :
The Birth of Italics » and « Reading 'Aristotle's' Book »

Hosted by the Canadian Society for Renaissance Studies and co-sponsored by the Canadian Historical Association and the Canadian Association for the Study of Book Culture / Une invitation de la Société canadienne d'études de la Renaissance coparrainée par la Société historique du Canada et l'Association Canadienne pour l'étude de l'histoire du livre

5:00-6:00 / 17h-18h

- 38. Oral History Group Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Groupe d'histoire orale
- 39. ActiveHistory Business Meeting / Réunion de travail d'*HistoireEngagée
- 40. Canadian Committee on Military History Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Comité canadien sur l'histoire militaire
- 41. Business History Group Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Groupe d'histoire des affaires

Tuesday June 2nd 2015 / Mardi 2 juin 2015

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

42. Contesting Indigenous Schooling: Education History, Historiography, and Interdisciplinary Methodologies

Facilitator / Animatrice : Kristine Alexander (University of Lethbridge)

Emma Battell Lowman (University of Leicester): Mamook Komtax Chinook Pipa: Comparing Literacy Strategies and Outcomes of English and Chinook Jargon in the South Central Interior of British Columbia in the late 19th Century

Sean Carleton (Trent University): God's Armies Invade: Colonial Anxiety and State Support for Missionary Schooling in Vancouver Island and British Columbia, 1849-1871

Alison Norman (Trent University): "Indian Masters": The Hiring of Aboriginal teachers in Southern Ontario Day Schools in the late 19th century

Thomas Peace (Huron University College): Context Matters: Towards a Continuous History of Schooling and Colonialism

Commentator / Commentatrice: Kristine Alexander (University of Lethbridge)

Part of the mini-conference in Aboriginal History sponsored by the Aboriginal History Studies Group / Rattachée à la mini-conférence en histoire autochtone parrainée par le Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

43. Equal Opportunity and the Shaping of Political Culture in 1960s New Brunswick

Facilitator / Animateur : Matthew Hayday (University of Guelph) & Shirley Tillotson (Dalhousie University)
David Frank (University of New Brunswick, Fredericton): Public Goods and Good Jobs: The Byrne Report and the Labour Question in New Brunswick, 1963-68

Greg Marquis (University of New Brunswick, Saint John): Growth Fantasies: Setting the Urban Agenda in 1960s Saint John, New Brunswick

Nicole O'Byrne (University of New Brunswick, Fredericton): Robichaud's Programme of Equal Opportunity in the Press (1963-1966)

Commentators / Commentateurs: Matthew Hayday (University of Guelph) & Shirley Tillotson (Dalhousie University)

Sponsored by the Political History Group / Parrainée par le Groupe d'histoire politique

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

44. Tracking business practices in Canada / Pratiques d'affaires au Canada

Facilitator / Animateur : Sylvie Taschereau (Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières)

Béatrice Craig (Université d'Ottawa): Consommation rurale au Bas-Canada au milieu du 19^e siècle : Immigrants britanniques vs. Canadiens français de vieille souche

Kristin Hall (University of Waterloo): Trade Journals, Manhood, and 'Legitimate Advertising': Establishing Advertising as a Necessary Business Practice for Canadian Consumer Goods Manufacturers, 1887-1914

Thierry Nootens (Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières): Droit, tribunaux et capitalisme : le parcours juridique et judiciaire de George Baptist, magnat du bois de la Mauricie (Québec) (1808-1875)

Christina Williamson (Carleton University): The History of a Parka: How One Object Can Tell a Story

Commentator / Commentateur: Sylvie Taschereau (Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières)

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

45. Defining the Great Lakes – Saint-Lawrence System : varying perspectives and scales / Définir le système Grands Lacs–Saint-Laurent: perspectives et échelles croisées

Facilitator / Animateur : Alan MacEachern (Western University)

Jamie Benidickson (University of Ottawa): From Boundary Waters to Water Boundaries: Legal Dimensions of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence System

Stephen Bocking (Trent University): Invasive Species, Ecological Transformations, and the Formation of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence System

Stéphane Castonguay (Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières): Production cartographique, représentation scientifique et espace administratif: le système GL-SL comme imaginaire géographique

Michèle Dagenais (Université de Montréal) et Ken Cruikshank (McMaster University): Quelques pistes sur les études publiées sur les Grands Lacs – Saint-Laurent depuis 200 ans : un survol

Commentator / Commentateur: Alan MacEachern (Western University)

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

46. Political Activism as an Object of Historical Inquiry / L'activisme politique comme un objet d'étude historique

Facilitator / Animateur :

Ian Bradley-Perrin (Concordia University): A Seat at the Table: Rethinking the Cultural History of AIDS Activism

Amanda Piché (Ryerson University): An Early Canadian Homosexual Public?: How Jim Egan's Print-Based Activism Attempted to Cultivate Changes in Canadian Social Consciousness

Paul-Étienne Rainville (Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières): Une jeunesse universitaire en quête d'universel : la lutte des étudiants montréalais contre le racisme et la discrimination raciale, de l'après-guerre aux années 1960

Shannon Stettner (York University): "I think it's dumb to be killing little babies in their mothers' stomach": The Use of Children and Youth in Toronto Operation Rescue Actions

Commentator / Commentateur:

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

47. Cover-ups, Bribes and Machine Politics: Scandal, Canadian-Style

Facilitator / Animateur : John McFarlane (Directorate History and Heritage/Direction Histoire et Patrimoine)

Penny E. Bryden (University of Victoria): Toward a Taxonomy of Political Scandal in Canada

Larry A. Glassford (University of Windsor): Scandal and the Evolution of Political Careers: The Case of the Ontario Hydro Scandal of the 1930s

Mark Kuhlberg (Laurentian University): The Scandal That Never Was: Conservative Corruption in Ontario's Forest Industry, 1923-1926

Ryan Targa (York University): From Governors to Grocers: Profits and Scandal in Canada during the Great War

Commentator / Commentateur: John McFarlane (Directorate History and Heritage/Direction Histoire et Patrimoine)

Sponsored by the Political History Group / Parrainée par le Groupe d'histoire politique

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

48. Lines Across the (North) West (Coast): Transportation Geographies of Ethnography, Quarantine, and Modernization

Facilitator / Animateur :

Glenn Icton (University of Saskatchewan): "It was commencing to get wintery": Ethnographic Field Work, Transportation, and Seasonality in the Yukon-BC Borderlands from the Early to Mid-Twentieth Century

Laura Larsen (University of Saskatchewan): As the Crow Flew: Examining Trudeau-Era Rail Rationalization Policy through HGIS

Frances Reilly (University of Saskatchewan): Communism and Quarantine on the West Coast: Transportation and National Security in Canada's Cold War

Commentator / Commentateur:

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

49. Gender Studies in Historical Perspective / L'étude du genre dans la recherche historique

Facilitator / Animateur :

Marcia Braundy (West Kootenay Women's Digital History Project) KootenayFeminism.com - a growing microcosm of an historical Women's Movement

Tamara de Szegheo Lang (York University): The Explosion in Grandma's Attic, the Cabinet of Curiosities, and Chance Encounters in the GLBT History Museum

Kirk Niergarth (Mount Royal University): Gender and the Great Experiment: Soviet Women in Canadian Eyes, 1926-1937

Ivan Simic (University College London): The usage of gender studies in historical research of Eastern European policies

Commentator / Commentateur:

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

50. Contested Terrains: Constructions of Blackness and Racial Difference in 20th Century Canada

Facilitator / Animatrice : Stephanie Bangarth (King's University College, Western University)

Funke Aladejebi (York University): "They don't want you because you are coloured": Black Women Teachers and Workplace experiences in Ontario Schools, 1950s-1980s

Deirdre McCorkindale (Queen's University): What Colour is Intelligence?: The Tanser Study and the Troubling Legacy of the 'Coloured Man's Paris'

Melissa N. Shaw (Queen's University): "Imitating Our Southern Neighbours": Wielding a Comparative Analysis to Chastise Anti-Black Racism and Inspire Activism in Canada during the 1920s

Nassisse Solomon (Western University): "Of Canadian Concern": Why the Abyssinian Crisis of WWII served as Canada's Call to Action for Social Mobilization against Tyranny and Racial Impunity

Commentator / Commentatrice: Stephanie Bangarth (King's University College, Western University)

Sponsored by the Canadian Council on Migration, Ethnicity and Transnationalism / Parrainée par le Comité canadien sur la migration, l'éthnicité et le transnationalisme

9:00-12:00 / 9h – 12h (100 Marie-Curie – 102)

51. Tour of the Archives of the University of Ottawa / Visite des Archives de l'Université d'Ottawa

Visite en français de 9h à 10h30

Veillez réserver votre place auprès de Michel Prévost, archiviste en chef de l'Université, par courriel à michel.prevost@uOttawa.ca

English tour from 10:30 to 12:00

Please reserve your spot by emailing Michel Prévost, Chief Archivist of the University, at michel.prevost@uOttawa.ca

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

52. Learning about People from Places: Reflections on Social Identities, Place-making and Environmental Policy in Indigenous British Columbia

Facilitator / Animateur :

Whitney Bajric (University of Victoria):

James Davey (University of Victoria):

Esther Rzeplinski (University of Victoria):

Sabina Trimble (University of Victoria):

Commentator / Commentateur:

Part of the mini-conference in Aboriginal History sponsored by the Aboriginal History Studies Group / Rattachée à la mini-conférence en histoire autochtone parrainée par le Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

53. History of Atlantic Canada / Histoire des provinces atlantiques canadiennes

Facilitator / Animateur :

Angela Duffett (Queen's University): "I Have Found the Town Very Much Improved": Transatlantic letter-writing, place, and identity in St. John's, Newfoundland, 1810-1870

Stephen Hay (University of British Columbia): A Trade in Information and Ignorance: Sailors, Seamen, and other Entrepreneurs of Vernacular Knowledge in the pre-Revolutionary Atlantic, 1740-1775

Nicholas Landry (Université de Moncton): Des vassaux indésirables; les Acadiens à Saint-Pierre et Miquelon 1765-1783

Joshua Tavenor (Wilfrid Laurier University): Misinterpreting Failure: Feedback Loops, Evidence and the Promotion of Early Seventeenth-Century Newfoundland

Commentator / Commentateur:

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

54. Publishing Historical Research in an Era of Increasing Interdisciplinarity: Reflections and Advice from Journal Editors

Facilitator / Animateur : Adam Chapnick (Canadian Forces College/Collège des Forces canadiennes, Royal Military College of Canada/Collège militaire royal du Canada & Co-editor/Codirecteur, International Journal: Canada's Journal of Global Policy Analysis)

Adam Chapnick (Canadian Forces College/Collège des Forces canadiennes, Royal Military College of Canada/Collège militaire royal du Canada & Co-editor/Codirecteur, International Journal: Canada's Journal of Global Policy Analysis)

Nathalie Cooke (McGill University & Founding editor/Fondatrice, Cuiszine)

Alan Gordon (University of Guelph, Co-Editor and Editor-in-Chief/Codirecteur et rédacteur en chef, Urban History Review / Revue d'histoire urbaine)

Matthew Hayday (University of Guelph, Editorial Board Member/Membre du Comité éditorial, Canadian Historical Review, Past Associate Editor/ Ancien directeur adjoint, Journal of Canadian Studies/ Revue d'études canadiennes)

Commentator / Commentateur: Michael Bechthold (Wilfrid Laurier University Press)

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

55. Historiography and Intellectual History / Historiographie et histoire intellectuelle

Facilitator / Animatrice : Marie-Josée Lavallée (Université de Montréal)

Serge Dupuis (CEFAN, Université Laval) & Stéphane Savard (Université du Québec à Montréal):

Fondée par des historiens ? La discipline de l'histoire franco-ontarienne et son évolution

Marc-André Éthier (Université de Montréal), Catherine Déry (Université de Montréal), Vincent Boutonnet (Université du Québec en Outaouais), Jean-François Cardin (Université Laval) & David Lefrancois (Université du Québec en Outaouais): Les liens entre la mémoire historique et l'enseignement de l'histoire à l'école tel qu'ils se sont manifestés lors du débat concernant l'implantation d'un nouveau programme d'histoire au Québec (2006-2014)

Marie-Josée Lavallée (Université de Montréal): L'histoire intellectuelle récente et l'étude des courants intellectuels : L'exemple de l'influence de l'Antiquité grecque dans la pensée politique d'après-guerre

Stéphane Lévesque (Université d'Ottawa): « La menace d'assimilation pèse encore » : Mémoire, identité et conscience historique des jeunes francophones d'Ottawa

Commentator / Commentatrice : Marie-Josée Lavallée (Université de Montréal)

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

56. Secret Lives

Facilitator / Animateur : Mark G. McGowan (University of Toronto)

Mairi Cowan (University of Toronto): « Sorciers et Magiciens en ce païs »: The Secret Lives of Demons in Seventeenth-Century New France

Chris Pennington (Dictionary of Canadian Biography/ Dictionnaire biographique du Canada): Evidence, Ethics, and Editorial Dilemmas: Secrets in the DCB/DBC

David A. Wilson (University of Toronto): The Double Life of a Secret Policeman: "The Curious Case of Charles Clarke"

Commentator / Commentateur: Mark G. McGowan (University of Toronto)

Co-sponsored by the Dictionary of Canadian Biography and the Department of History, University of Toronto / Coparrainé par le Dictionnaire biographique du Canada et le Département d'histoire de l'Université de Toronto

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

57. Roundtable – Canada's First World War: A Centennial Series at ActiveHistory.ca

Facilitator / Animateur :

Participants:

Rebecca Beusaert (Wilfrid Laurier University & Woodstock Museum National Historic Site)

Christopher Schultz (Western University)

Nathan Smith (University of Toronto Mississauga & SUNY Empire State College)

Jamie Swift (Independent Scholar/Chercheure indépendante)

58. Quebec City in the 19th Century: A forgotten Site of Interethnic Contact and Conflict

Facilitator / Animateur : Brian Young (McGill University)

Patrick Donovan (Université Laval): Religious Ostentation Past and Present through the Lens of Quebec City's Salvation Army Wars

Donald Fyson (Université Laval): Interethnic Conflict and Violence in a Port City: Quebec, 1815-1875
Alex Tremblay (Université Laval): L'ambiguïté des frontières entre anglo-protestants et franco-catholiques au sein des élites de Québec au XIXe siècle
Commentator / Commentateur: Brian Young (McGill University)

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

59. Roundtable – Rethinking Gender and Women’s History: Reflections on Interdisciplinary Approaches

Facilitator / Animatrice : Carmen J. Neilson (Mount Royal University)

Krista Cooke (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l’histoire): “Doing” Womens and Feminist Public History

Marlene Epp (University of Waterloo): Beyond Sisters or Strangers: Writing Feminist Histories of Immigrant Women and Rewriting Canadian History

Katherine M. McKenna (Western University): Class Conflict and Gender Roles in Early British North America

Beth A. Robertson (Carleton University): Gendered Spirits: Religion, Women and Agency in Canadian History

Shannon Stettner (York University): Realizing Reproductive Justice in Canadian History

Heather Stanley (University of Alberta): Primal Urge/National Force: Canadian Sex and Sexuality Historiography

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

60. Rethinking Division: German State Making after 1945

Facilitator / Animatrice : Jennifer Evans (Carleton University)

Eric Allina (University of Ottawa): Becoming New Men of the Revolution: African Workers and East German Industry in the GDR’s Last Decade

Jane Freeland (Carleton University): Talking East, Talking West: East German Women Activists against Gender Violence

Emmanuel Hogg (Carleton University): “Die Mauer muss weg! Die Mauer muss weg!” (The Wall must go! The Wall must go!)”: Soccer Culture and Identity Formation in Divided Berlin

Commentator / Commentatrice: Jennifer Evans (Carleton University)

12:00-1:00 / 12h-13h

61. Canadian Council on Migration, Ethnicity and Transnationalism Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Comité canadien sur la migration, l'éthnicité et le transnationalisme
62. Graduate Student Committee Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Comité des étudiant(e)s diplômé(e)s
63. Canadian Committee on Women's History Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Comité canadien de l'histoire des femmes
64. Canadian Network for Economic History Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Réseau canadien d'histoire économique
65. Environmental History Group Business Meeting / Réunion de travail du Groupe d'histoire environnementale
66. Canadian International History – Canadian Foreign Relations Business Meeting / Réunion de travail Histoire canadienne internationale – Relations étrangères canadiennes

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

67. Poster Session / Séance de présentation par affiche

À compléter lorsque les propositions auront été reçues.

1:00-2:30 / 13h à 14h30 (TBA)

Is All History Now Environmental History? The Anthropocene in Historical Context

(Activité offerte en anglais seulement)

Facilitator / Animatrice: Tina Loo (University of British Columbia)

Participants:

Daniel Macfarlane (Western Michigan University)

Sean Kheraj (York University)

Stephen Bocking (Trent University)

Jessica DeWitt (University of Saskatchewan)

Hosted by the Environmental Studies Association of Canada and co-sponsored by the Canadian Historical Association/ Une invitation de l'Association canadienne d'études environnementales coparrainée par la Société historique du Canada

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

68. Roundtable – Future Directions for Ethnohistory in Canada: Taking Stock 60 Years After the American Indian Claims Commission Launched the Method of Ethnohistory

Facilitator / Animateur :

Participants :

Omeasoo Butt (University of Saskatchewan)

Keith Thor Carlson (University of Saskatchewan)

J. Douglas Leighton (Huron University College)

Sarah Nickel (Simon Fraser University)

Carolyn Podruchny (York University)

Part of the mini-conference in Aboriginal History sponsored by the Aboriginal History Studies Group / Rattachée à la mini-conférence en histoire autochtone parrainée par le Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

69. Roundtable – Public, Private, Political: Charitable Organizations and Citizen Engagement

Facilitator / Animateur :

Sarah Glassford (University of Prince Edward Island)

Ian Mosby (McMaster University)

Will Tait (Carleton University)

Shirley Tillotson (Dalhousie University)

Jon Weier (University of Western Ontario)

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

70. Roundtable – Making Public History / Table-ronde – Faire de l'histoire publique

Facilitator / Animatrice : Jennifer Anderson (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire)

Participants:

Linda Grussani (Aboriginal Art Centre at AANDC)/Centre d'art autochtone d'AADNC)

Xavier Gélinas (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire)

Lee-Ann Martin (Independent Curator/Conservatrice indépendante)

Alexandra Mosquin (Parks Canada/Parcs Canada)

Sanna Guerin (Office of the Secretary of the Governor General/Bureau du secrétaire du gouverneur général)

Jean-Pierre Morin (Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada/Affaires autochtones et Développement du Nord Canada)

Sponsored by The Public History Group / Parrainée par le Groupe d'histoire publique

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

71. History and Environment / Histoire et environnement

Facilitator / Animateur :

Gregory M. W. Kennedy (Université de Moncton): Building Resilience to Environmental Change in New Brunswick Coastal Communities through Historical and Interdisciplinary Research

Kristine Kowalchuck (Northern Alberta Institute of Technology): Thomas Tryon and Bioregionalism: Learning from Early Modern England's Alternative Agriculture

Pearl Ann Reichwein (University of Alberta) & Karen Wall (Athabasca University): Walking into Marshall McLuhan's "Urban Classroom": Edmonton's Modern City Beautiful, Past and Present

Yves Tremblay (Department of National Defence/Ministère de la Défense nationale & University of Ottawa/Université d'Ottawa): Le fédéral, le provincial et le DDT : l'Expo 67 comme moment décisif de l'histoire de la sensibilité écologique au Canada

Commentator / Commentateur :

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

72. Approaching Unusual Sources in History / Témoignages peu communs en histoire

Facilitator / Animateur :

Bruce Curtis (Carleton University): “I get tired of walkin’ these streets all dressed in black”: Hearing African-American sex trade workers, 1920-1950

Michelle L. Folk (University of Regina): How Should We ‘Read’ the Writing on the Wall? Approaches to India’s Inscriptions

Alexey Golubev (University of British Columbia): Forgotten Common Places of Late Socialism: Soviet Stairwells and Their Social Conflicts

Cynthia Milton (Université de Montréal): Art from Fractured Pasts: artistic representations as historical truths in the aftermath of violence

Commentator / Commentateur:

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

73. The Actress, Transatlantic Performance and Cultural Negotiation in the Long Nineteenth Century

Facilitator / Animatrice : Heather Davis-Fisch (University of British Columbia)

Roberta Barker (Dalhousie University): The Bodies of the Eaglet: Maude Adams, Sarah Bernhardt and Theatrical Forms of Capital, Anno 1900

Sasha Kovacs (University of Toronto): Leaving the Capital Behind: Pauline Johnson and The Transatlantic Movements of Wampum

Marlis Schweitzer (York University): Clara Fisher’s Head: George Combe and the Phrenological Career of a Child Actress

Commentator / Commentatrice: Heather Davis-Fisch (University of British Columbia)

Co-sponsored by the Canadian Association for Theatre Research / Coparrainée par l’Association canadienne de la recherche théâtrale

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

74. What Kind of Development? Maritime Environmentalism and Regional Development Policy in the 1970s

Facilitator / Animateur : Alan MacEachern (Western University)

Mark Leeming (Memorial University of Newfoundland): Local Economic Independence as Environmentalism: Nova Scotia in the 1970s

Mark J. McLaughlin (Trent University): Greening the System: The Conservation Council of New Brunswick's Responses to State Resource Development, 1969-1983

Henry Trim (University of British Columbia) An Alternative on Prince Edward Island: Environmentalism, Modernization, and Sustainable Development

Commentator / Commentateur: Alan MacEachern (Western University)

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

75. Rethinking Canada: A Fossil Fuel Nation

Facilitator / Animateur : Steve Penfold (University of Toronto)

Sean Kheraj (York University): A Silent River of Oil: An Environment History of Pipeline Spills in Canada, 1959-2012

R.W. Sandwell (University of Toronto): The First Modern Lighting: A Short History of Manufactured Gas and Kerosene in Canada

Andrew Watson (York University): The Problem of Coal in Canada: Finding Markets for Canadian Coal Between the Wars

Commentator / Commentateur: Steve Penfold (University of Toronto)

1:30-3:00 / 13h30-15h

76. Family, Patronage, Politics: Histories of Intimacy and Emotion in late 19th- and early 20th century Canada

Facilitator / Animateur : Jeffrey L. McNairn (Queen's University)

Dave Banoub (Independent Scholar): Desiring a Position: Patronage and Rhetorics of Emotion in late-Victorian Canada

Laura Ishiguro (University of British Columbia): Intimacy and settler family correspondence from British Columbia, 1858-1914

Carmen J. Nielson (Mount Royal University): Duty and Desire: Navigating Politics and Affect in George Brown's letters

Commentator / Commentateur: Jeffrey L. McNairn (Queen's University)

3:30-4:30 / 15h30-16h30

77. Presidential Address / Discours présidentiel

Introduced by / Présentée par: Joan Sangster (Trent University)

Dominique Marshall (President of the Canadian Historical Association): Children's Drawings and Humanitarian Aid: Transnational Expressions and Exhibitions/ Dominique Marshall (Présidente de la Société historique du Canada): Dessins d'enfants et aide humanitaire : expressions et expositions transnationales

4:45-5:45 / 16h45-17h45

78. Annual General Meeting / Réunion annuelle des membres

6:00-7:30 / 18h-19h30

79. Awards presentation and reception / Remise des prix et réception

7:30 + / 19h30 +

80. Social event / Activité sociale (Cliopalooza)

Wednesday June 3rd 2015 / Mercredi 3 juin 2015

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

81. Recordkeeping/Archives, colonizers/colonized: creating/using 19th and 20th century records about indigenous peoples

Facilitator / Animateur :

Ry Moran (University of Manitoba)

Jessica Squires (University of Texas at Austin)

Shelley Sweeney (Carleton University)

Commentator / Commentateur :

Part of the mini-conference in Aboriginal History sponsored by the Aboriginal History Studies Group / Rattachée à la mini-conférence en histoire autochtone parrainée par le Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

82. Damage Control: The History of Sexually Transmitted Infections in Germany and Canada 1914-1975

Facilitator / Animatrice : Jennifer Evans (Carleton University)

Catherine Carstairs (University of Guelph): Penicillin, the Pill and Promiscuity: Sexual Education in 1960s Canada

William John Pratt (University of Calgary): Sex and Soldiering: Venereal Disease in the Canadian Army, 1939-45

Christabelle Sethna (University of Ottawa): Guilty Parties: The Ignorant Husband, the Selfish Wife and the New Woman in “Damaged Lives”

Lisa Todd (University of New Brunswick): “Sexual Abstinence is Every Soldier’s Duty!”: Prostitution, Disease and Nationalism in First World War Germany

Commentator / Commentatrice : Jennifer Evans (Carleton University)

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

83. Transnational Ties: North American Women’s Multifaceted Engagements with World War One

Facilitator / Animateur : Sharon Cook (University of Ottawa)

Lorna McLean (University of Ottawa): A time of war emergency: Julia Grace Wales and public education, 1920 to 1950

Liz Millward (University of Manitoba): The Stinson Sisters’ Pro-war Roles in Canadian Aviation during the First World War

Cecilia Morgan (University of Toronto): Performing for war and peace: Canadian Actresses’ Transnational Engagements with World War One

Commentator / Commentatrice: Sharon Cook (University of Ottawa)

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

84. Resistance and Resilience in History / Le refus d’obtempérer et la résistance en histoire

Facilitator / Animateur :

Sophie Doucet (Université du Québec à Montréal): Sur les traces d’une émotion : la tristesse dans les écrits intimes de Marie-Louise Globensky (1849-1919)

Jonathan Scotland (Western University): Getting it Right? Charles Yale Harrison’s Generals Die in Bed as a Representative Example of Canadian Postwar Disillusion

Anna Sheftel (Saint-Paul University) & Luke Moyer (Saint-Paul): Reconceptualizing Resilience: Holocaust Survivors, Immigration and Social Class

Allison Marie Ward (Queen’s University): The Woman Who Would Not Meet the King: Using Agnes Sharpe to Explore Omissions in Political History

Commentator / Commentateur:

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

85. Nationalism, Land, and Territory / Le nationalisme et l'aménagement du territoire

Facilitator / Animateur :

Cristian Ionita (Université de Montréal): Comment mettre la nation sur la carte : Nationalisme et cartographie dans l'Europe centrale avant la Première Guerre mondiale

Dinah Jansen (Queen's University): Size Matters: The Paris Peace Conference, Russian Liberals, and Russian Territorial Integrity, 1919

Chris Miller (Concordia University): Making Meaning in the Land: Remembering Expropriation through Oral History in Pickering, Ontario

Xiaping Sun (Saint Mary's University): Creating the Myth of the Wilderness: A Discursive Analysis of Maoist Land Reclamation in Northeast China

Commentator / Commentateur:

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

86. Canadian Narratives and Canadian Identity / Récits canadiens et identités canadiennes

Facilitator / Animateur :

Camie Augustus (University of Ottawa): Geography, Science, and Indigeneity: Professional Discourse and the Creation of Race in Canada (1850-1930)

Megan Baxter (Western University): "They are not old enough to understand rightly what they are doing:" Children in the International Order of Good Templars, 1900-1920

Brent Campney (University of Texas-Pan American): "Canadians Are Not Proficient in the Art of Lynching": Mob Violence and English Canadian Identity

Steve Jankowski (York University): The facts of Canada: Changing narratives within the Encyclopedia Britannica

Commentator / Commentateur:

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

87. Practicing the Discipline of History / Regards sur la profession d'historien

Facilitator / Animateur :

Victoria Freeman (York University): First Story: Toronto's Indigenous History as Smart Phone App

Patti Harper (Carleton University Archives): Characteristics of Archival Narrative – Why it should Matter to You

Danielle Metcalfe (Edmonton's Historian Laureate): Rethinking Interdisciplinarity in History

Anne Toews (York University), Lori Chambers (Lakehead University) & Elise Chenier (Simon Fraser University): Still Working in the Shadow of Men?: An Analysis of Sex Distribution in Publications and Prizes in Canadian History

Commentator / Commentateur:

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

88. Notions of State and International Relations in History / L'État et les relations internationales en histoire

Facilitator / Animateur :

Paula Hastings (University of Toronto at Scarborough): The Limits of ‘brotherly love’: Rethinking Canada-Caribbean Relations in the Early Twentieth Century

Colin McCullough (McMaster University): Peace, Order, and World Government: Remaking the World in Canada’s Image, 1945-1967

Bradley Miller (University of British Columbia): The Un-Leviathan: The Forming State and Its Failures, 1820-1914

David Rapaport (Trent University): Reformatting the State: The Privatization of Information Technology as Cause and Reflection of Neo-Liberal State Restructuring (1972-2005)

Commentator / Commentateur:

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

89. Interdisciplinary approaches to women’s history and communication: feminism, media women and their work at Radio-Canada and the Canadian Press News Agency

Facilitator / Animatrice : Magda Fahrni (Université du Québec à Montréal)

Josette Brun (Université Laval): L’actualité sur les femmes à la télévision de Radio-Canada au temps du women’s lib : les Télé-flash de Femme d’aujourd’hui de 1965-1982

Barbara M. Freeman (Carleton University): “You’ll have a good career here, but not a great one.” New(s) Angles on Masculine Attitudes and Female Journalists at Canadian Press, 1960s-1990s

Laurie Laplanche (Université Laval): Le service des émissions féminines télévisées au réseau francophone de la Société Radio-Canada (1965-1982): une histoire du genre dans les organisations

Commentator / Commentatrice: Magda Fahrni (Université du Québec à Montréal)

Sponsored by the Media and Communication History Committee and the Canadian Committee on Women’s History / Parrainée par le Comité de l’histoire des médias et de la communication et par le Comité canadien de l’histoire des femmes

8:30-10:00 / 8h30-10h

90. Roundtable – Landscapes of Injustice: Victim, Perpetrator and Witness Narratives of the Japanese-Canadian Dispossession during the Second World War

Facilitator / Animateur : Jordan Stanger-Ross (University of Victoria)

Participants:

Alicia Fong (Ryerson University)

Joshua Labove (Simon Fraser University)

Alexander Pekic (Ryerson University)

Heather Read (Ryerson University)

Momoye Sugiman (Ryerson University)

Pamela Sugiman (Ryerson University)

Sponsored by the Canadian Committee on Migration, Ethnicity and Transnationalism/Parrainée par le Comité canadien sur la migration, l’éthnicité et le transnationalisme

10:30-12 :00 / 10h30 – 12h (Morisset – 040)

8:30-10:00 / 8h30 à 10h (TBA)

Canadian Catholic Historical Association Keynote Lecture /
Conférence plénière de la Canadian Catholic Historical Association

(Activité offerte en anglais seulement)

Chair / Animateur: Robert Dennis (University of Prince Edward Island)

Speaker / Conférencière: Jacalyn Duffin (Queen's University): Medical Saints:

Cosmas and Damian in a Postmodern World

Hosted by the Canadian Catholic Historical Association and co-sponsored by the Canadian Historical Association / Une invitation de la Canadian Catholic Historical Association coparrainée par la Société historique du Canada

91. Tour of the Centre de recherche en civilisation canadienne-française (CRCCF) / Visite du Centre de recherche en civilisation canadiennefrançaise (CRCCF)

This event is offered in French only

Veillez réserver votre place auprès de Michel Lalonde, Archiviste en chef, par courriel à michel.lalonde@uOttawa.ca

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

92. First Nations in Canadian Historiography / Les nations autochtones dans l'historiographie canadienne

Facilitator / Animateur :

Tolly Bradford (Concordia University College of Alberta) & Chelsea Horton (University of Victoria):

Indigenous Encounters with Christianity in Canada: Reflections on Interdisciplinary Exchange

Erin Dolmage (York University): Examining Charles Denney's Metis Genealogy as Colonial Archive

Melissa Otis (Carleton University): Our collection on Native Americans is limited

Donald B. Smith (Professor Emeritus of History, University of Calgary): Changing Attitudes Toward the First Nations in French-Speaking Canada: The Contribution of Jacques Rousseau (1905-1970)

Commentator / Commentateur :

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

93. Exploring Family History / À la recherche de l'histoire familiale

Facilitator / Animateur :

Katrina Ackerman (University of Waterloo): Intergovernmental Relations and Family Planning Services in the Maritime Provinces, 1969-1988

Andrea Eidinger (Kwantlen Polytechnic University): Substitute Mothers: The Visiting Homemaker's Service and Cold War Constructions of Masculinity, Femininity, and Families in the Jewish Community of Montreal

Stephanie O'Neill (Université de Montréal): Utiliser les mémoires en service social comme sources en histoire
de la famille et de la consommation à Montréal

Allyson Stevenson (University of Saskatchewan): Rehabilitating the "Subnormal (Metis) Family" in Saskatchewan: Tommy Douglas, the CCF and the origins of Aboriginal Child Welfare

Commentator / Commentateur:

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

94. Archival Stories: Reflections from the Archives of Canada and the Canadian Museum of History

Facilitator / Animateur : David McGee (Canada Science and Technology Museum/Musée des sciences et de la technologie du Canada)

Jennifer Anderson (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire): Documenting Canada: Discovering the Laurence Nowry fonds

Judith Klassen (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire): Juliette Gaultier and the (Re)presentation of Historic Sound Recordings on the 1920s Concert Stage

Benoît Thériault (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire): Les archives de Marius Barbeau : universalité et interdisciplinarité en recherche au Canada

Jonathan Wise (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire) The Museum, Its Story: 1850 to the Present

Commentator / Commentateur: David McGee (Canada Science and Technology Museum/Musée des sciences et de la technologie du Canada)

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

95. Why should history education research matter to historians?

Facilitator / Animateur : Stéphane Lévesque (Université d'Ottawa)

Marie-Hélène Brunet (Université de Montréal): Dépasser le mythe de la « brûleuse de brassière »: les idées des élèves à propos du féminisme

Mary G. Chaktsiris (Queen's University): "Instructors Just Ask General Questions about the Readings": Reflections from a University History Class

Raphaël Gani (Université d'Ottawa): L'ignorance de l'histoire comme outil d'apprentissage

Geneviève Goulet (Université du Québec en Outaouais): L'enseignement des opérations de la pensée historique combiné à la visite d'un lieu historico-patrimonial

David Scott (University of Calgary): Re-examining the Purposes of History Education and Historical Research in Perilous Times

Cynthia Wallace-Casey (University of New Brunswick) De-constructing Cabinets of Curiosity: Enabling Students to Think Historically in Community History Museums

Commentator / Commentateur: Stéphane Lévesque (Université d'Ottawa)

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

96. Who killed pre-Confederation Canadian history? The place of early-Canada in an interdisciplinary and transnational historiographical environment

Facilitators / Animateurs : Robert Englebert (University of Saskatchewan) & Thomas Peace (Huron University College)

Béatrice Craig (University of Ottawa)

Michel Ducharme (University of British Columbia)

Jane Errington (Queen's University)

Allan Greer (McGill University)

Elizabeth Mancke (University of New Brunswick)

Adele Perry (University of Manitoba)

Commentators / Commentateurs : Robert Englebert (University of Saskatchewan) & Thomas Peace (Huron University College)

Sponsored by the Journal of the Canadian Historical Association / Parrainée par la Revue de la Société historique du Canada

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

97. Policing, Security, and Surveillance in Canada

Facilitator / Animateur : Gregory S. Kealey (University of New Brunswick)

Dominique Clément (University of Alberta): International Terrorism and the Olympics: Security Planning for Montreal's 1976 Summer Games

Patrizia Gentile (Carleton University): Gendering Security and Surveillance: Police Raids of Lesbian Bars in Montreal, 1950 to 1975

Steve Hewitt (University of Birmingham): 'It could be a Canadian city': The Evolution of Canadian Counter-Terrorism, 1971-1984

Wesley Wark (University of Ottawa): It Can't Happen Here: The Evolution of Canadian Counter-Terrorism since 9/11

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

98. Not Goin' Down the Road: The Politics of Regional Development in Eastern Canada

Facilitator / Animateur : Sean Cadigan (Memorial University of Newfoundland)

Will Langford (Queen's University) Devco, its Transatlantic Sheep, and the Development of Cape Breton

Tina Loo (University of British Columbia): Development as Disciplinary Power: the Bureau d'Aménagement de l'Est du Québec and the Meanings of Citizen Participation in the 1960s

Andrew Parnaby (Cape Breton University): 'The counterfeit principles of a free enterprise system': Roots, Region, and Resistance in the Sydney Steel Crisis of 1967

Commentator / Commentateur: Sean Cadigan (Memorial University of Newfoundland)

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

99. The Cold War / La Guerre froide

Facilitator / Animateur :

Ian Muller (Wilfrid Laurier University): Canadian anti-communism in a bilateral context: More 'greylist' than 'blacklist'?!

Jorge Nallim (University of Manitoba): Decentering the Cold War: the case of the Argentine Association for Cultural Freedom (1950s-1960s)

Matthew Wiseman (Wilfrid Laurier University): Unlocking the 'Eskimo Secret': Defence Science in the Cold War Canadian Arctic

Commentator / Commentateur :

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

100. The Exchange of Ideas in Atlantic and Local Networks: Colonial Readers and Printers

Facilitator / Animatrice : Leslie Howsam (University of Windsor)

Keith Grant (University of New Brunswick): "O may his evangelical sentiments ... have a wide circulation": Reading ideas, practices, and networks in Edward Manning's colonial Nova Scotia

Scott McLaren (York University): Injuring the Cause of God: John Wesley's Struggle to Control Methodist Publishing in America, 1769-1789

Daniel Samson (Brock University): Print Culture in Rural Mid-19th-Century Pictou, Nova Scotia
Commentator / Commentatrice: Leslie Howsam (University of Windsor)

10:15-11:45 / 10h15-11h45

101. Roundtable – Thinking Outside the Box: Historians and Interdisciplinarity

Facilitator / Animatrice : Lara Campbell (Simon Fraser University)

Participants:

Sean Carleton (Trent University)

Roberta Lexier (Mount Royal University)

Daniel Horner (Ryerson University)

Daniel Macfarlane (Western Michigan University)

Christabelle Sethna (University of Ottawa)

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

102. First Nations in Canadian History / Les autochtones dans l'histoire canadienne

Facilitator / Animateur :

Robin Jarvis Brownlie (University of Manitoba): Why Did Residential Schools Continue for So Long?

James Cullingham (Seneca College/Tamarack Productions): A Comparative Look at Native Policy in mid to late 19th century Canada, Mexico and USA

Sarah Katherine Gibson (Queen's University): Education at the Boundary of Western and Aboriginal Knowledge Cultures in Upper and Lower Canada, 1820-1840

Michael Hamon (McGill University): "We are at present without any armed force...": Popular politics and Government in Red River

Commentator / Commentateur :

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

103. Commemoration and the State in 19th and 20th Century Canada

Facilitator / Animatrice : Cecilia Morgan (University of Toronto)

Elizabeth Hudson (Independent Scholar): Unveiling the "Faithful" Mohawk: Contested Commemoration in Brantford, Ontario

Daniel Simeone (McGill University): The Incorporation of History: The Ontario Historical Society and the Ontario state

Robert J. Talbot (University of New Brunswick): Cultural Dualism and the Politics of Dominion Day in 1927

Commentator / Commentatrice: Cecilia Morgan (University of Toronto)

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

104. Histories of consequence: Indigenous-state relations and historical inheritances in British Columbia

Facilitator / Animateur : Keith Thor Carlson (University of Saskatchewan)

Arielle Gorin (Yale University): Samandlin's Grave and the Contested Tsilhqot'in Homelands

Megan Harvey (University of Victoria): New Stories for Old? Material and Narrative Inheritances in the BC treaty process

David Vogt (University of Victoria): “Indians on White Lines”: Land, Law, and Trapline Registration in Northern British Columbia, 1925-1945

Commentator / Commentateur: Jim Miller (University of Saskatchewan)

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

105. A Curious Development: Situation Canada in a Global History of Technical Assistance

Facilitator / Animatrice : Laura Madokoro (McGill University)

David Meren (Université de Montréal): From India to Ungava: An Exploration of the Intersecting of Aboriginal History and the History of Canadian Development Assistance

David Webster (Bishop’s University): The CCF beyond the seas: Canadian social democrats as development advisors in Southeast Asia, 1950-1965

Commentator / Commentatrice: Laura Madokoro (McGill University)

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

106. Roundtable – What does an interdisciplinary classroom look like? Teaching history within and beyond disciplinary boundaries

Facilitator / Animateur : Chad Gaffield (University of Ottawa)

Participants:

John Bonnett (Brock University)

Patrizia Gentile (Carleton University)

Steven High (Concordia University)

Jo-Anne McCutcheon (University of Ottawa)

Katharine Rollwagen (Vancouver Island University)

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

107. Remaking and Reimagining the City

Facilitator / Animatrice : Michèle Dagenais (Université de Montréal)

Harold Berubé (Université de Sherbrooke): A Different Kind of Urban Redevelopment: The Case of Montreal’s “Golden Square Mile” (1945-1980)

Dan Horner (Ryerson University): Re-Thinking the City: Migration, Urban Space and Liberal Governance in Montreal during the Middle Decades of the Nineteenth Century.

Don Nerbas (Cape Breton University): Place Ville-Marie and the Making of Modern Montreal

Daniel Ross (York University): Planning for Progress, Planning for People: The Eaton Centre and the Development Debate in Toronto, 1966-1972

Commentator / Commentatrice: Michèle Dagenais (Université de Montréal)

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

108. Frontiers of Our Past: The 1920s in Canada

Facilitator / Animateur : Alan Bowker (Independent Scholar/Chercheur indépendant)

Susan Joudrey (Saint Mary’s University): Captive Audience: The 1923 Raid on Calgary City Hall

Andrew Nurse (Mount Allison University): ‘And Our Failure Seemed Almost Complete for the Time Being’: Reconsidering the Canadian Folk-Song and Handicraft Festival, 1926-31

Molly Ungar (University of the Fraser Valley): Vampires, Vamps, and Vamping in the 1920's
Commentator / Commentateur : Alan Bowker (Independent Scholar/Chercheur indépendant)

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

109. Exploration and Immigration in Canadian History / Exploration et immigration dans l'histoire canadienne

Facilitator / Animateur :

Marilyn Barber (Carleton University) & Murray Watson (University of Dundee): Invisible Immigrants: The English in Canada since 1945

Geoffrey Little (Concordia University): "This very extensive and almost unknown portion of the empire": The Montreal Natural History Society's Surveys of Rupert's Land

Gustavo Velasco (London School of Economics): The Post, the Railroad and the State: New Approaches to study Western Canada Settlement, 1870-1900

Commentator / Commentateur:

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

110. Roundtable – Scars of Class: Oral Histories of Workers' Health and Environmental Justice

Facilitator / Animateur : Craig Heron (York University)

Participants:

Michael A. Commito (McMaster University)

Steven High (Concordia University)

Lachlan MacKinnon (Concordia University)

Robert Storey (McMaster University)

Stacey Zembrzycki (Concordia University)

Commentator / Commentatrice: Catherine Rollwagen (Vancouver Island University)

12:00-1:30 / 12h-13h30

111. Roundtable on James Daschuk's Clearing the Plains, winner of the 2014 Sir John A. Macdonald Prize from the Canadian Historical Association/ Table-ronde sur le livre Clearing the Plains de James Daschuk, lauréat du prix Sir-John-A.-Macdonald 2014 de la Société historique du Canada

Facilitator / Animateur: Carolyn Podruchny (York University)

Participants :

Theodore Binnema (University of Northern British Columbia)

Mary-Ellen Kelm (Simon Fraser University)

Ian Mosby (McMaster University)

Susan Neylan (Wilfrid Laurier University)

Commentator / Commentateur: James W. Daschuk (University of Regina)

Sponsored by the Journal of the Canadian Historical Association / Parrainée par la Revue de la Société historique du Canada

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

112. Roundtable – Longitudinal Research from Historical Sources

Facilitator / Animateur : Eric Sager (University of Victoria)

Participants:

Herb Emery (University of Calgary)

Chad Gaffield (University of Ottawa)

Michael Haan (University of New Brunswick)

*Co-sponsored by the Canadian Sociological Association and Canadian Population Society /
Coprarrainée par la Société canadienne de sociologie et la Canadian Population Society*

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

- 113. Roundtable on Mark Salber Phillips' On Historical Distance, winner of the 2014 Wallace K. Ferguson Prize from the Canadian Historical Association/ Table-ronde sur le livre On Historical Distance de Mark Salber Phillips, lauréat du prix Wallace K. Ferguson 2014 de la Société historique du Canada

Facilitator / Animateur: Jacqueline Holler (University of Northern British Columbia)

Participants :

David Dean (Carleton University)

Kenneth Dewar (Mount Saint Vincent University)

Marcie Frank (Concordia University)

Allan Greer (McGill University)

Commentator / Commentateur: Mark Salber Phillips (Carleton University)

Sponsored by the Journal of the Canadian Historical Association / Parrainée par la Revue de la Société historique du Canada

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

- 114. History in the Classroom / L'histoire dans la salle de classe

Facilitator / Animateur : Jeffrey Brison (Queen's University)

Caroline-Isabelle Caron (Queen's University): History vs. Pseudo-history: deconstructing the popular past in the connected classroom

Shabnam Inanloo Dailoo (Athabasca University): Erasing Disciplinary Boundaries – Athabasca University's Approach to Heritage and History Education and Practice

Margaret T. Rockwell (University of Alberta): Bringing a Bronze WW1 Memorial to Life: How a Class Assignment Shows the Value of Digital Archives

Commentator / Commentateur: Jeffrey Brison (Queen's University)

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

- 115. Approaches to Collaborative Research

Facilitator / Animateur :

Alexander Campbell (Know History Inc.): Historic Metis Communities and Electronic Resources: Notes from a Decade of Use in the Field

Emily Keyes (Carleton University): Untangling the Technology of Genealogy

Émilie Pigeon (York University): The Rise of the Historical Network Analysis Method and Its Imprint on the Past

Ryan Shackleton (Know History Inc.): Historian's For Hire – Large Scale Historical Inquires and the Complexity of Team Based Research Projects

Commentator / Commentateur:

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

116. Sensory Encounters and Embodied Histories in the Fur Trade and Nineteenth-Century Northwest

Facilitator / Animateur :

Daniel Robert Laxer (University of Toronto): Sensing New Peoples: Diet, Dress, and Dance in the Western Fur Trade, 1760-1821.

Stacy Nation-Knapper (York University): Feeling It: Sensory Experiences of the Nineteenth-Century Columbia River Plateau Fur Trade

Carolyn Podruchny (York University): Embodying Denial: The Vanishing Life of the Metis Giant from Willow Bunch, Saskatchewan, 1881-1904

Commentator / Commentateur :

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

117. New Perspectives on Canadian Foreign Policy in the Diefenbaker Era, 1957-1963 (Part 1)

Facilitator / Animatrice : Penny Bryden (University of Victoria)

Stephen Azzi (Carleton University): Diefenbaker and the Culture of Camelot

Greg Donaghy (Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Canada/Affaires étrangères, Commerce et Développement Canada): From the Top Down: Eisenhower, Diefenbaker, and Canada-US Relations, 1957-61

Michael Stevenson (Lakehead University): Sidney Smith, Howard Green, and the Conduct of Canadian Foreign Policy

Commentator / Commentatrice : Penny Bryden (University of Victoria)

Co-sponsored by the Political History Group and Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Canada / Coparrainée par le Groupe d'histoire politique et Affaires étrangères, Commerce et Développement Canada

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

118. Literary Translation and Reinterpretation of History / Traduction littéraire et relecture de l'histoire

Facilitator / Animatrice : Madeleine Stratford (Université du Québec en Outaouais)

Pierre Ancil (University of Ottawa): La littérature yiddish de Montréal : un univers en quête de traducteurs

Clara Foz (University of Ottawa): Los Antiguos Canadienses : un classique canadien-français au service du panaméricanisme

Gillian Lane-Mercier (Université McGill): L'impact de facteurs institutionnels sur l'évolution des rapports de force culturels intra- et internationaux

Denise Merkle (University of Moncton): William Chapman, poète et traducteur

Commentator / Commentateur: Madeleine Stratford (Université du Québec en Outaouais)

Co-sponsored by the Canadian Association for Translation studies / Coparrainée par l'Association canadienne de traductologie

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

119. Roundtable – Critical Reflections on Bryan D. Palmer’s Contribution to the Writing of Labour and Working-Class History

Facilitator / Animateur : Gregory S. Kealey (University of New Brunswick)

Participants:

Neville Kirk (Emeritus Professor of History, Manchester Metropolitan University)

Annalee Lepp (University of Victoria)

Andrée Lévesque (McGill University, ret.)

Chad Pearson (Collin College, Texas)

Charlotte Yates (McMaster University)

Sponsored by the Canadian Committee on Labour History / Parrainée par le Comité canadien sur l'histoire du travail

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

120. Roundtable: Reading History, Reading Sociology

Facilitator / Animatrice : Phillip Primeau (Carleton University)

Bruce Curtis (Carleton University)

Catherine Desbarats (McGill University)

Frédéric Guillaume Dufour (Université du Québec à Montréal)

Matthew Lange (McGill University)

Dominique Marshall (Carleton University)

Shirley Tillotson (Dalhousie University)

Co-sponsored by the Canadian Sociological Association / Coparrainée par la Société canadienne de sociologie

1:45-3:15 / 13h45-15h15

121. Le marché Sainte-Anne et le parlement de Montréal : un dialogue interdisciplinaire

Facilitator / Animateur :

Joanne Burgess (Université du Québec à Montréal) et Alain Roy (Independent Scholar/Chercheur indépendant): Dimensions historiques

Helen McKay (Canadian Conservation Institute/Institut canadien de conservation): Culture matérielle

Louise Pothier (Musée Pointe-à-Callière): Dimension archéologique

Léon Robichaud (Université de Sherbrooke): Dimension numérique

Commentator / Commentateur:

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

122. Witchcraft in Canada: from Early Modern Demonology to Colonial Clash of Cultures

Facilitator / Animatrice : Elizabeth Mancke (University of New Brunswick)

Kathryn Labelle (University of Saskatchewan): Oky ontatechiata: Wendat Witchcraft and The Panic of 1635-1645

Scott Moir (Cape Breton University): The Survival of Scottish Witchcraft Belief in Canada

Stephanie Pettigrew (University of New Brunswick): Witchcraft in the French Atlantic World: Gender and Social Tension in New France

Commentator / Commentatrice: Elizabeth Mancke (University of New Brunswick)

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

123. Indigenous Peoples, Labour, and Industrial Development in Canada

Facilitator / Animateur : John Lutz (University of Victoria)

Anne Janhunen (University of Saskatchewan): 'A Regular Curse': Indigenous Labour and the Paradox of Early Twentieth-Century Industry in British Columbia's Fraser Valley

Brittany Luby (Laurentian University): The International Joint Commission and the Woes of "Civilized" Men: An Examination of Flood Damage Assessments and Compensatory Systems on Lake of the Woods, 1893 – 1925

Daniel Rueck (University of Ottawa): Industrial Development and Indian Act Modernity in Kahnawake, 1880-1935

Commentator / Commentateur : John Lutz (University of Victoria)

Part of the mini-conference in Aboriginal History sponsored by the Aboriginal History Studies Group / Rattachée à la mini-conférence en histoire autochtone parrainée par le Groupe d'étude d'histoire autochtone

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

124. New Perspectives on Canadian Foreign Policy in the Diefenbaker Era, 1957-1963 (Part 2)

Facilitator / Animatrice : Laura Madokoro (McGill University)

Nicole Marion (Carleton University): An Unexpected Ally: Diefenbaker's Foreign Policy and the Canadian Anti-Nuclear Weapons Movement

Asa McKercher (Queen's University): 'Quizas, Quizas, Quizas': Diefenbaker and Latin America, 1957-63

Cory Scurr (Wilfrid Laurier University): Cold War Warrior? Diefenbaker and Canadian-Soviet Relations

Commentator / Commentatrice : Laura Madokoro (McGill University)

Sponsored by the Political History Group and Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Canada / Parrainée par le Groupe d'histoire politique et Affaires étrangères, Commerce et Développement Canada

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

125. Man and his Environment / L'Homme et son milieu

Facilitator / Animateur :

Stacey Alexopoulos (York University): Surveying a Problem: Statistics and Housing Policy Development, 1958-1962

Jessica Dewitt (University of Saskatchewan): Park Formation as Catalyst for Restoration: A Pennsylvania River's Ecological Revivification

Adrian Gamble (York University): Documenting the Canadian Arts and Crafts Movement: An Exercise in Interdisciplinarity

Merle Massie (University of Saskatchewan/University of Ottawa): Grounding science with history: Place methodology from the field

Commentator / Commentateur:

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

126. L'histoire et le droit au service d'une sortie de crises en Guinée

Facilitator / Animateur :

Thierno Souleymane Barry (Université de Sherbrooke): Les voies de la sortie de crise en Guinée: reconnaissances, justice et démocratie

Patrick Dramé (Université de Sherbrooke): Histoire de la violence et mémoire de la répression politique en Guinée

Commentator / Commentateur :

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

127. The Greeks – Agamemnon to Alexander The Great Exhibition / L'exposition Les Grecs – d'Agamemnon à Alexandre le Grand

Facilitator / Animateur : Terence Clark (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire)

Terence Clark (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire): The Idea of History from Whence it Came: Untangling the threads of myth and history in Ancient Greece.

Jean-François Léger (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire): Les Grecs : une expérience muséale plurielle. Défis d'interprétation et scénario innovateur d'un parcours couvrant 6000 ans d'histoire.

William A. Parkinson (The Field Museum/University of Illinois at Chicago): Archaeology, Ancient History, and the Longue Durée: The Neolithic Roots of Ancient Greece

Commentator / Commentateur: Terence Clark (Canadian Museum of History/Musée canadien de l'histoire)

Participants to the Annual Meeting of the CHA can attend the pre-inauguration of the exhibition The Greeks – Agamemnon to Alexander The Great at the Canadian Museum of History for free with proof of registration.

Sur présentation d'une preuve d'inscription, les participants à la Réunion annuelle de la SHC peuvent assister gratuitement à la pré-inauguration de l'exposition Les Grecs – d'Agamemnon à Alexandre le Grand au Musée canadien de l'histoire

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

128. Law and Rights in African History

Facilitator / Animateur :

Olabisi D. Akinkugbe (University of Ottawa): Rethinking the Nexus between Law and Development and the New International Economic Order

Bonny Ibhawoh (McMaster University): Beyond the Bill of Rights: Theorizing the Oppositional Politics of Human Rights in Post-Colonial Africa

Lexington Izuagie (Ambrose Alli University): The Willink Minority Commission and Minority Rights in Nigeria

Mairi S. MacDonald (University of Toronto): “Widespread proofs of great energy”: Enforcing Human Rights in the Independent Congo State

Meredith Terretta (University of Ottawa): Anticolonial Cause Lawyering, Transnational Activism, and the Rule of Law in Independence Era Africa

Commentator / Commentateur :

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

129. History, Interdisciplinarity, and the Indian Ocean World

Facilitator / Animateur : Emmanuel Hogg (Carleton University)

J. Pablo Arroyo-Mora (IOWC, McGill University): The Indian Ocean World Database: an interdisciplinary approach for understanding human-environment interactions

Rashed Chowdhury (IOWC, McGill University): Russian Explorers in the Indian Ocean World in the Late Nineteenth Century

Chinnaiah Jangam (Carleton University): Rethinking History in Indian Subcontinent: Politics of Identity and the Project of Writing History

Commentator / Commentateur : Emmanuel Hogg (Carleton University)

Co-sponsored by the Journal of the Canadian Historical Association and the Indian Ocean World Centre / Coparrainée par la Revue de la Société historique du Canada et par le Indian Ocean World Centre

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

130. L’histoire environnementale et les savoirs interdisciplinaires du passé

Facilitator / Animateur : Stéphane Castonguay (Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières/CIEQ)

Maude Flamand-Hubert (Université du Québec à Rimouski/Paris IV Sorbonne) : Explorer, inventorier, classifier : la séparation des terres comme lieu de négociation interdisciplinaire

Maude-Emmanuelle Lambert (Independent Scholar/Chercheure indépendante, Historica Canada) : Embellir et aménager les abords routiers : du Club des Habitants aux ingénieurs de l’État québécois (1945-1960)

Valérie Poirier (Université du Québec à Montréal) : « Choice Between Automobile and Survival » : la pollution automobile comme enjeu de santé publique (1960-1970)

Commentator / Commentateur : Stéphane Castonguay (Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières / CIEQ)

Co-sponsored by the Network in Canadian History & Environment (NiCHE) / Coparrainée par la Nouvelle initiative canadienne en histoire de l’environnement (NiCHE)

3:30-5:00 / 15h30-17h

131. Roundtable – Reflecting on Greg Kealey and Canadian Labour History

Facilitator / Animateur : Janis Thiessen (University of Winnipeg)

Participants:

Christina Burr (University of Windsor)

Sean T. Cadigan (Memorial University)

Dominique Clement (University of Alberta)

Craig Heron (York University)

Benjamin Isitt (University of Victoria)

Andrew Parnaby (Cape Breton University)

Tentative Schedule CHA 2015 – Horaire provisoire SHC 2015

Kirk Niergarth (Mount Royal University)

Sponsored by the Canadian Committee on Labour History / Parrainée par le Comité canadien sur l'histoire du travail